Comments: As a resident of the local community, living in McKenzie Bridge, I've seen our once 'secret' attraction become over-loved and over used. The reality is that we can't keep people from visiting and enjoying this local treasure. For better or for worse, the Blue Pool is vital to the local economy, and the crowds will keep coming. The key, at this point, is better crowd management and education. I feel the parking lot improvements will go a long way to improve the safety of the area and the overall experience of our visitors. I fully support this project.
