

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/2/2018 1:29:18 PM

First name: Beulah

Last name: Allen

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I support the designation of Wilderness in the Granite Basin area of Colorado. An extremely unspoiled and beautiful area, it should be preserved and left undeveloped for wildlife and for people. Too much land has been lost to development with resultant loss of habitat. A pristine wilderness enhances the wonder and appreciation for life and the natural processes that occur in nature. Not to establish this wilderness would be to give way to eventual destruction of the area through private interests.