

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/30/2018 8:52:08 PM

First name: Scott

Last name: Page

Organization:

Title:

Comments: It appears most if not all the proposed development is directly within or immediately adjacent to critical habitat for the Mt Charleston Blue Butterfly, a critically endangered species which is almost 100% dependant on host and nest plants in the expansion area. I can't understand how the the USFS could even consider allowing this proposal to go forward, since their would be immediate and permanent adverse impacts to an endangered species.