

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/23/2018 12:47:48 PM

First name: Jacqueline

Last name: Ambrus

Organization:

Title:

Comments: We are military, Alaska residents, and will be returning to Alaska next summer. It appears that Alaska is not very agriculture friendly. Every few months, there is yet another proposal trying to limit the ownership of sheep and goats on one land or another. Many Alaskans depend on these hardy animals as a source of self-sustainability and income. Reconsider abandoning these types of Alaskans by enacting overbearing regulations on the population.