

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/24/2018 8:51:21 PM

First name: steve

Last name: pearson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Motorized access to National Forest lands in AK should not be restricted anymore than it already is. There is so much wilderness land w/in AK that is non-motorized already where different user groups already control and can enjoy experiences they want. The limited amount of motorized areas is small already and does not in any way take away from all the other non motorized areas.