Comments: I am 65 years old. I have also been working and paying taxes for upwards of 50 years. Why do politicians in the USA, but especially those in the last 38 years, Republican ones, incessantly seek to sell off public lands for their selfish political gains? Those weasels don't deserve to be the "stewards" of the public trust. I am teaching my 8 and 10 year old kids who (which political party that is) has been violating our trust as citizen-owners of these rapidly diminishing resources. And you know what? They get it. And their little friends get it, surprisingly well. The steam roller is coming!
