Comments: For how long I have lived in Alaska I have been in the Chugiak national forest. Snowmachines in the winter in the mountains is were I can escape and a lot of others as well places that you can't get to in the summer are gorgeous and would hate to miss out on these sites because other people I hope you hear out every single person that comments because if they truly ride or ski or love the outdoors they /I would want other to enjoy it as well.
