Comments: Ill keep this short and sweet, no further restrictions in the Chugach. In fact, an argument could be made for loosening the existing rules. Understanding this is a National forest, i have a hard time believeing the opinion of out of staters carries the same weight as someone who lives and recreates in the area. My family uses the area, both motorized and on bicycle/ foot. Please dont take that away from future generations via more stringent regulation.

Thanks for the consideration!
