

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/26/2018 11:39:59 PM

First name: Christina

Last name: Partridge

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Do not take away the rights of the citizens.

People in remote areas rely on goats and sheep. Goats and sheep provide milk, milk products, fiber products and meat. They are very practical small homestead animals. Shipping products across Alaska is difficult as well as expensive and can quickly become prohibitive. Having a home milk goat might be the only way some Alaskan children can get fresh fluid milk to drink.

Do not take away our food source.

Do not take away our rights.