Comments: It's been proven time and time again that winter motorsports cause less environmental damages than even hiking trails in the summer! I don't even ride in these areas but I do ride snowmachines and have for many years in Alaska. The fact that people from a completely different state are being considered more than Alaskans is just pitiful. Snowmachining is a great family activity I grew up riding with my mom and dad, some of my best childhood memories are on a snowmachine. Please do not shut down these areas.
