Comments: Wanting to pass along my thoughts and concerns iwith the Multi-use areas in Alaska. Our population is growing and that provides opportunities for income for many companies in Alaska. Responsible patrons aid in many ways such as safety for others and taking care of the land. People understand if don't take of things you loose them and therefore many are not shy to police others when you know they are in the wrong. Reality is very few people abuse the gifts we have when outdoors. Many enjoy taking kids out, teaching them about it and enjoying this great state. People from around the world bring money to our state to enjoy the outdoors all year long.
