Comments: Seeing as my original comment got hacked somehow saddens me. People will go to extreme measures to get their way, even if it's as low as having comments and copy pasting their ideology for comments. I read multiple comments all exact copy paste of what mine was changed to. I FIRMLY think that many people benefit from the Chugach areas. Many people including myself use riding areas of the Chugach often. There's a huge community coming together to make sure they don't get closed. And I think that's a whole lot better of a way to get what you want instead of cheating your way through.

My name is Justus Easley and I think the Chugach forest should be kept open.
