Comments: I am born and raised in Anchorage, Alaska . As long as I could remember my family has snowmachined, hiked, fishes, four wheeled , snowshoed and champed! We grew up snowmachining turnagain pass and many other areas. When I was younger my uncle passed away in an avalanche and I stopped riding turnagain it took a long time to ride there again but when started to ride that area again I feel like I'm riding with him. This great state has so many wonderful places I have yet to explore... lost lake placer 20 mile summit and many more ! Many of us choose to live here because we love the outdoors it our way of life! By closing certain areas your hurting our economy our friends our families .Every ride ,every hike we stop in shops to eat and spend money with local companies , if we don't travel those areas ,we won't spend money ,places will close people will struggle even more
