Comments: Hello all,

I've seen where you guys are trying to cut off access to the Alaska state parks. I have only been AK for the past few years and only been riding the last two years this will always keep me coming back to Alaska. When we ride there is so much snow on the ground that we do not hurt the forest we even go back out after the snow melts and clean up all trash we see we love these mountains and would live to be able to make memories with our kids to come. I strongly support alternative B
