Comments: This is one of the most beautiful and sacred places to fly hang gliders in the US. As a longtime pilot, I would say that closing this launch would be a huge detriment to the thousands of pilots that utilize this launch and to the sport of hang gliding as well. Many pilots travel from all of the country to come fly this area. I am in Oregon and drive to this area multiple times a year to fly. There has to be a solution or compromise to ensure that this area can remain open to the flying community. This is the premier spot for flying in the PNW.
