

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/15/2019 10:24:55 PM

First name: Douglas

Last name: Doerrfeld

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I strongly oppose the measures proposed here weakening the protection area and schedules for bats. These bat populations are struggling to survive multiple negative impacts from environmental stresses and degradation. The Forest Service should be consulting with U.S. Fish and Wildlife and other experts to increase protections. The other forest uses involved are not nearly as important during this critical time.