

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/3/2019 7:45:05 PM

First name: Carolyn

Last name: Riddle

Organization:

Title:

Comments: We all know what happens where fracking occurs: earthquakes, water pollution, and serious ecological degradation. Our national parks belong to all the people and are critical to protecting flora and wildlife, which are under extreme stress up to and including extinction of thousands of species in the 21st century. Please do not allow fracking near Yellowstone or any of our fragile public lands. Thank you.