Comments: My name is Violet M. Connoyer, a retired Civil Service Worker and Veteran of the U. S. Army..

I have traveled extensively and believe that all areas subject to the Custer Gallatin National forest should be preserved; their outstanding wilderness values and the management of the area in it should be in close consultation with the Crow Nation. The Crow Indians, and all other Indians, deserve this respect and safeguarding. We, as a whole, need to be the Gatekeeper.

The rest of the entire world is helter-skelter. It is the natural thing to do to have such beautiful country left untouched and unscathed. My grand-children need to see and experience the uniqueness and simplicity of splendor in this robotic world. Nothing can ever replace this treasure.
