Comments: Backcountry snowmobiling is my passion, I was born and raised in co. Taking away even more of our backcountry access has no purpose! Snowmobiler's do not harm any part of the ecosystem or any other backcountry enthusiast enjoying are amazing playgrounds. If anything snowmobiling helps the community and system in many ways such as snow pack, we don't make ruts or tear up any native material we actually pack the snow causing a easier regulated run off. Snowmobiling brings enthusiasts to our community to enjoy their passion in these amazing places around Colorado.
