

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/14/2019 9:13:03 PM

First name: Sandra

Last name: Lassen

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am opposed to any practice that would expand grazing in our public lands of Thunder Basin and kill prairie dogs there. Many sound scientific studies show us the damage the occurs when we remove a keystone predator from a biological system. Reintroducing ferrets will improve and stabilize this area. Cattle belong in ranches. Our wild places should remain wild, for the survival of all life.