

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/18/2019 8:00:00 AM

First name: Allison

Last name: Levin

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I vehemently oppose the proposal to exempt the Tongas National Forest from the 2001 Roadless Area Conservation Rule. To do so would gut the law of its purpose.

We have a moral and practical responsibility to the future to put the brakes on development and extraction; these activities contribute to climate change, damage habitats for other species, and impact the natural world ("resources") in ways we still don't understand.

[Position]