Comments: No road in Alaska

I went to Alaska to see wild animals, glaciers and forests. And the salmon.

If you get rid of those things Alaska has little to invite people there.

Then all you will have is barren land with roads, polluted water, no animals, ruined land from Oil wells

And the cold. The beauty will be gone. And it has forest to help take carbon dioxide out of the air.

We do not need oil. And the state of the earth right now makes putting in roads and digging wells a suicide mission for the people for the cause of power and wealth.

NO ROADS IN ALASKA.
