

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/17/2019 8:00:00 AM

First name: Stephen

Last name: Chase

Organization:

Title:

Comments: We should no longer view our woodlands as cash crop resources, but rather small and important holdings to maintain for O2 production, carbon dioxide capture, and as economic opportunities for sustainable recreation. Some of us love that they exist even if we'll never get a chance to visit. I think some people need to update their world view from "rip it up for temporary jobs" to "let's protect it as a permanent resource for everyone".

[Position]