

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/19/2019 8:00:00 AM

First name: Douglas

Last name: Danforth

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The unhealthy political side of any intention to remove public lands to private enterprise is contrary to every level of jurisdiction possible. Hemp (and other lesser options) can replace a solid portion of the need for 'wood products' - and scientific gains are being made on alternatives for lumber. Any decision to ignore our promise to public lands is an offense to our future and our values of preservation and decency.

[Position]