Comments: You need to leave are forest alone .we destroy everything in are paths not thinking about later out come what might happen. An thens it's to late.find something else to do. You'll ruin it for sure,an then how much wild life an other plants are you going to kill. I'm a hunter an camper.love the forest.part owner of 2000 acres in the Appalachian mountains in eastern Kentucky.its part of Daniel boone national forest.an we protect it an the wild life.an hunt an fish. An all family enjoys it, so do friends.it belongs to the people,go cut your on fucking trees down.
