

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/20/2019 8:00:00 AM

First name: Angela

Last name: Gadino

Organization:

Title:

Comments: While I understand the science of good Forest management I do not think reversal of the roadless rule for the Tongass National Forest is being based on science. If it were, the cost/benefit analysis would show the value of keeping this ecosystem in tact as it is since its highest value is the services this ecosystem provides for us. Please do not implement the proposed rule to reverse the roadless status if this National Forest

[Position]