Comments: Trees are the best and most efficient way to mitigate the massive imbalance of carbon in the atmosphere...but you know that, don't you. You want to log the Tongass anyway. Why? $$$$

You all should be ashamed of yourselves. Our kids and grandkids won't have a habitable planet to live on unless the US government LEADS on mitigation of climate change. Do you have kids? If you do, do you care about them? Sure doesn't seem like it.
