Comments: We're fast approaching a time when we won't be able to use the words 'untouched wilderness' anymore and if you can't understand why that is something to be avoided at all costs, you shouldn't be a part of the decision-making process that might make this horrible future come true.

Not everything is a resource to be mined, cut down, or siphoned off. Not everything has a price tag, no matter what you may think. Sometimes, it's correct to see a forest and not see an opportunity to log it until it no longer resembles something majestic.
