

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/20/2019 8:00:00 AM

First name: Thomas

Last name: Cooney

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This forest should remain untouched permanently for the pleasure and safety of all Americans. The carbon sink this forest provides is critical to helping reduce the most harmful impacts of the global warming crisis. If industries need more wood, they should purchase private land and grow their own trees for harvest. These federal lands dont belong simply to timber companies and developers. They belong to the American people.

[Position]