

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/20/2019 8:00:00 AM

First name: Joseph

Last name: Lewis

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I do not support opening any US protected areas for logging. ESPECIALLY National Forest System Lands in Alaska. These areas are already islands of once great forest that have been decimated and poorly managed. Please protect these lands and add to them for preservation of animals and plants alike as well as to benefit future generations. The 2001 Roadless Area Conservation Rules should be expanded upon and not rescinded or changed to limit its current protections.

[Position]