

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/20/2019 8:00:00 AM

First name: michael

Last name: unger

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a biology professor at a small private university, I would submit that there is no legitimate reason for reducing pristine forest in any part of this planet. At least not one that is supported by the scientific family as we are currently fighting for the health of our planet. The future of all living things depends on Mankind doing what is right and not letting short sighted greed take precedence over the long term health of our world. DO WHATS RIGHT!

[Position]