Comments: To whom it concerns,

We at Umpqua Feather Merchants are lovers of wild, healthy eco systems. Not only do we love them, our business relies on their very existence. In a world where development creeps into our natural environment areas like the Tongass represent the pinnacle of what a wild place looks like. The proposed repeal of the Roadless Rule on the Tongass would negatively impact the fish and wildlife habitat which makes the Tongass a world-class destination for fishing. As a fishing company, we cannot stand on the sidelines and watch another world-class destination fall to development, our sport needs it and our souls need it.

Thank you.
