

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/27/2019 8:00:00 AM

First name: Alison

Last name: Munson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a forest ecologist working in Canada, I am alarmed to see the removal of protection for one of the last roadless temperate rainforests in North America. This area should remain roadless for the generations that come after us, and as a buffer and protected area during the climate change we are currently experiencing. I disagree strongly with this decision to develop this amazing old growth forest area, unique in the world.

[Position]