Comments: Keep the forest how it is. It should be left alone. We should be able to retrieve any animal, not just elk. We should be able to camp anywhere, not just 300ft off the main roads. We should also be allowed to retrieve wood wherever possible. We should be allowed the opportunity to keep our traditions that we have grown up with. The roads should be kept open as to keep people spread out to reduce congestion and opportunity for accidents and hunting accidents. This is the same thing every other forest is doing, and it's going to hurt so many local people's way of living that rely on it's resources.
