

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/27/2019 8:00:00 AM

First name: Joel

Last name: Shields

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a lifelong hunter and outdoorsman I would like to voice my intense opposition to the US Forest Service plan to open a huge portion of the Tongass National Forest to logging. What makes our country special is our preservation of pristine, public lands for the use of everyone. Logging this forest would be an irreversible, permanent decision for a momentary, temporal gain. Not worth it.

[Position]