Comments: I would like to express my objection to any and all changes in the full roadless protection for the Tongass National Forest. As a Colorado resident, I believe that important remaining wilderness areas like Tongass must be preserved for the future. Natural resources in them, even if considered valuable, should be undisturbed.

Development and extraction are relentless forces that change forever our planet's habitat for flora and fauna great and small. It is time to take industry extraction & profits off the list of permitted activities in wilderness areas.
