

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/30/2019 8:00:00 AM

First name: Heather

Last name: Bukhari

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Maintain the established Roadless Rule.

The natural beauty and ecological value of the tiny amount of remaining old growth forest MUST be prioritized over logging. By now one cannot fail to be aware that the survival of many species, including our own, depends on functioning ecosystems like those within the National Forest System Lands in Alaska. The value given to us by these ecosystems far exceeds the short-term profits and unnecessary consumption which feeds the logging industry.

[Position]

[Position]