

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/24/2019 8:00:00 AM

First name: Kathleen

Last name: LoGiudice

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Alaska Roadless Rule

To the USDA Forest Service:

I am writing to object in the strongest terms to the proposed changes to the Roadless Rule in Tongass National Forest. The Roadless Rule protects ancient forests from fragmentation and provides valuable habitat. We want no more logging and road building in this valuable carbon sink. This is a costly and wasteful proposal and I object to it.

Respectfully,

Kathleen LoGiudice, Ph.D.

--

Kathleen LoGiudice, PhD

Professor and Chair of Biological Sciences

Union College

[Position]