

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/19/2019 9:00:00 AM

First name: Gregory

Last name: Smith

Organization:

Title:

Comments: November 19, 2019

Dear Sir or Madam,

I strongly urge you not to change the roadless rule for the Tongass National Forest and potentially other roadless areas in the lower 48. Intact forests are becoming increasingly rare and yet increasingly necessary because of their capacity to absorb atmospheric carbon. Please resist the current administration's attempt to alter this rule and sidestep the important benefits it has helped to protect.

Sincerely yours,

Gregory Smith

[Position]

[Position]