

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/11/2019 5:32:04 PM

First name: Rick

Last name: McCay

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

The forest access fees are too low to show profitability or break even status when you factor in the expense of collection and monitoring. They are the same rates you were charging in the 1990's. On the other hand, the fees charged to cabin owners are so high you have forced the demographic to joint ownership. Cabin fees should be dispensed at the local level to support our