Dear Willamette National Forest,

Hello,

Growing up in Oregon, I was blessed with many outdoor options, and central Oregon presents my absolute favorites. Monthly camping trips with my Boy Scouts troop to central OR highlighted many outdoor adventures and I hope the Forestry Service keeps in mind that not all have the resources to use the fee system. I agree that a fee system may help limit usage, however, I believe there are more effective and lasting solutions that do not punish those without means or time to get a permit in advance.

Perhaps limiting parking or keeping a percentage of permits to be sold day of will allow recreation without undue burden on the populace.

Thank you for reading this message. I hope we find an equitable solution.

Sincerely,

Nick Strohecker
