

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/29/2019 9:05:14 PM

First name: Dixon

Last name: Milner

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please don't open public lands in Texas to drilling. I grew up there and the vast and diverse ecological systems are the biggest asset the state has. There are other ways to generate energy and we should focus on those instead of further destroying the planet. This would negatively affect our health and the health of future generations. Every living thing on earth is interdependent and the negative consequences of destroying more pristine nature in Texas for short term profits will be devastating to Texas.