Comments: I have valued public roadless and wilderness areas my entire life, and have spent a lot of my income traveling to such areas to backpack, hunt, and fish. Opening the Tongass to logging will negatively impact the fish and wildlife ecosystems as well mar the beauty of the area. I have always dreamed of making a trip there, but I will opt to go elsewhere if the Tongass becomes just another forest crisscrossed with roads and clearcuts. Please leave the roadless rule intact for the Tongas by selecting "no action."
