

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/8/2019 9:00:00 AM

First name: Karen

Last name: DuBose

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please do not open the Tongass to logging. That forest is a valuable carbon sink, as well as one of the only untouched refuges for wildlife left in our country. It is unthinkable that anyone would consider logging there in this day and age. Fighting to keep the Tongass free of logging was my very first political action as a young woman. I can't believe I'm back here fighting again. Leave it be.

[Position]