

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/8/2019 9:00:00 AM

First name: Kate

Last name: Calderwood

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Regarding the Alaska Roadless Rule from 2001, I strongly support "Alternative 1", which takes NO action in the Tongass region, and saves natural resources from logging. The benefit of keeping these important areas intact versus logging them is key to economic security for years to come. In this era of climate change, maintaining natural resources is higher value then selling logs to asia, or other markets.

[Position]

[Position]