

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/13/2019 9:00:00 AM

First name: Justin

Last name: Spurrier

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Roadless Rule needs to stay intact On the Tongass National Forest. Irreparable harm will be done to the ecosystem if the rule is exempted. If the Roadless Rule is lifted it will negativity affect fish and wildlife habitat. Removing the Roadless Rule would also have a negative impact on the booming tourism industry in Southeastern Alaska. With climate change we must keep the world's largest temperate rainforest intact.

[Position]