

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/26/2019 9:00:00 AM

First name: Manan

Last name: Allen

Organization:

Title:

Comments: HC662

Dear Secretary Perdue,

I live and work in the middle of the Tongass National Forest. Do not exempt Alaska from the Roadless Rule because we depend on it for food, for income and spirituality. Old growth logging does not make sense economically because there are less expensive sources of timber than remote SE AK. The forest supports salmon people We eat salmon, make money harvesting them, and appreciate that we have the last wild salmon ruins in the world.

[Position]