

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/17/2019 9:00:00 AM

First name: Arne

Last name: Sundt

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Southeast Alaska economy is driven by a sustainable commercial fishing industry and tourism. Together these sectors contribute 25 percent of the economy, more than $500 million a year, while the remains of an unsustainable, taxpayer-subsidized timber industry contributes less than 1 percent. Logging the Tongass is short sighted and irresponsible. Thank you.

[Position]

[Position]