

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/17/2019 9:00:00 AM

First name: Jim

Last name: Beard

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a resident of POW Island, I prefer Alternative 1, that would maintain the existing Roadless Rule protections for non roaded areas of the Tongass National Forest. I believe continued cutting of old growth timber in southeast Alaska is neither economical nor environmentally sustainable, primarily because of the heavily subsidized road construction needed to reach the timber.

[Position]

[Position]