Comments: Alaska Rooted Creations LLC is a small, native-owned business owned by Marina Anderson and Michael Chilton. Alaska Rooted Creations LLC is commonly called AK Rooted, with the intention to connect and engage with our community that is created through customers, artists and supporters of our business and to encourage others around us to find and define their roots. AK Rooted is a product of Marina and Michael's love for their cultures and the connection they have with their ancestors through the land around them. Marina and Michael work with a variety of natural materials from their ancestral lands and waters, but create the majority of their work with salvaged materials, such as driftwood that holds beautiful color in the grain.

AK Rooted supports Alternative 1, the no action alternative.
